

Dance to the Music

All Grade Levels

Choose a country to represent and practice two of their traditional dances. Ask one or two students to be narrators, providing the audience with a brief history of the dances. Students can dress or wear appropriate masks for the performance. For large performances, have each class or grade level represent a different country or continent.