

Song Birds

All Grade Levels

Choose two songs (native language or translated) and have the students learn the history of the songs. Ask one or two students to be narrators, introducing the songs, explaining the histories, and translating (if necessary) for the audience. Students can also dress or wear appropriate masks for the nationality of the songs.

For large performances, each class or grade level can represent a different nationality or continent.